

Announcing the

MENTAL HEALTH LEADERSHIP AND ADVOCACY TRAINING

A programme of training in international mental health and advocacy skills.

JULY 26th – AUGUST 12th, 2010

at The Department of Psychiatry, College of Medicine, Ibadan, Nigeria

To be conducted in collaboration with

The Centre for International Mental Health, University of Melbourne, Australia

The course is designed to build mental health leadership capacity and service development skills

HIGHLIGHTS OF COURSE CONTENT:

- a. Mental health leadership skills
- b. Public mental health
- c. Scaling up of mental health services
- d. Mental health service development
- e. Engagement with policy makers
- f. Policy development
- g. Human rights protection

WHO IS THE COURSE FOR?

- Mental health professionals
(psychiatrists, psychologist, social workers, etc.)
- Health policy makers/planners,
- NGO executives and operatives
- Advocacy groups
- User and family groups

The two week training course is followed by one week training workshop during which participants are supported in the designing of specific service and advocacy related proposals and projects.

COURSE FEES

Nigeria-based participants: N50,000.00
(payment covers course materials, tea breaks and lunch).
Accommodation will be arranged for participants on request.

Participants from outside Nigeria: $600
(payment covers course materials, tea breaks and lunch).
Accommodation will be arranged for participants on request.

PROF OYE GUREJE

Programme Director

Australian Government
AusAID

Interested persons should please contact the Course Coordinator at hservice.service@gmail.com